Song of my

LIGHT CANOE

OR THE

WILD GAZELLE.

O, come with me in my light canoe
Where the seas are calm and the sky is blue,
O, come with me for I long to go
To the place where the Mango apples grow;
O, come with me and be my love,
For thee the junglos depths I'll rove;
I'll gather the honey comb bright as gold,
And chase the Elk to its secret hold.

Chorus—I'll chase the Antelope o'er the plains,
The Tiger's cub I'll bind with chains,
And the wild Gazelle with the silvery feet
I'll give to thee for a playmate sweet.

I'll climb the palm for the Cuckoo's nest,
Red peas I'll gather to deck thy crest,
I'll pierce the Cocoa's cup for the wine,
And gather the roses, if thou'lt be mine.
Then come with me in my light canoe,
Where the sea is calm and the sky is blue;
For if you linger till another day,
Storms may arise and love decay.

Chorus—I'll chase the Antelope o'er the plains,
The Tiger's cub I'll bind with chains,
And the wild Gazelle with the silvery feet
I'll give to thee for a playmate sweet.
